TERMS:

All automatic delivery accounts must have a valid credit card on file. All balances over 30 days will be processed on credit card if not paid and I authorize such credit card use. Whiteley Fuel Oil must be informed of any changes in automatic delivery status, if house is drained for the season, and understand that if the house is sold all outstanding balances will be charged to my credit card. If the house is rented, the owner will be responsible for all charges incurred by tenant. Whiteley Fuel Oil will be held harmless for any losses or damages occurring for non-payment of account, Acts of God, or wrongful delivery, failure to make deliveries due to conditions beyond its control, including but not limited to strokes, fires, accidents, inclement weather, government regulations or fuel shortages. Accurate fuel consumption rate must be established and Whiteley Fuel Oil is not responsible for any fuel run-out or any damages resulting therefrom or incidental thereto. Customer will pay all collection costs on all suspended accounts because of non-payments. I understand these terms.
